

GMC FOOD SAFETY & QUALITY POLICY

General Milling Corporation, manufacturer of flour, bakery products, and animal feeds, and their applications, shall establish and maintain a food safety & quality management system to ensure safe, high quality products, from procurement of its materials up to shipping, in a prudent and responsible manner.

GMC's Top Management shall drive, support and provide resources needed to ensure food safety, product conformity and continual improvement of the effectiveness of its Food Safety Quality Management System (FSQMS).

Genmillers shall manage compliance to customer obligations FSQMS, statutory, legal and other requirements. Genmillers shall ensure effective communication and competency of its dynamic workforce on matters of food safety and quality.

Everyone who works at General Milling Corporation is responsible for ensuring awareness, complying with and enforcing this policy.